In the Police Court.

Malinda Mays, colored, was fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct; Pattie Hairston, colored, was assessed a similar amount on the same charge; J. F. Graves, colored, drunk and disorderly, fined $5; W. L. Graves, colored, assessed $5 on the same charge. A white man was fined $2.50 for indulging in a plain drunk. J. W. Graves, colored, was fined $10 for carrying concealed weapons and sent on to the grand jury. J. J. Quinn appeared before Police Justice Williams and made complaint on oath that he was afraid that Harvey Dow, who is at present confined in the city jail, would attempt, if released, to do his infant child bodily harm and requested that he be bound over to keep the peace. The total fines assessed amounted to $27.50, of which amount nothing was paid.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The committee on religious work have decided to secure the services of the Quaker evangelist, John M. Deans, of Philadelphia, to assist in the spiritual work of the Association. Mr. Deans will commence his labors in Roanoke the latter part of December. The workers' Bible training class will be organized early in November. Three men have already expressed their determination to join this class. The membership will be limited, and those wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity for obtaining a practical working knowledge of the best of all books should not defer. Secretary Mescham will conduct the class.

Would Not Rent the Hall.

Owing to a misunderstanding on the part of Chairman Hicks, of the Democratic executive committee, hand-bills were printed and circulated, stating that a public speaking would be held in the Railroad Y. M. C. A. hall last night. The committee on arrangements refused to rent the hall for the purpose of holding political meetings, and the speakers, with those who had assembled at the hall, repaired to the shop room of the round house, where a small crowd listened to campaign speeches last night.

To Catch the Railroad Men.

A special political meeting was held by the Democrats at the West End round house last night for the purpose of defining Candidate Watts' position to the railroad people and to try to explain his action in regard to the Gas and Water Company bill. Speeches were made by Messrs. Watts, Lyie and Glasgow. They were the same old stereotyped addresses the people have heard so much, and it was hard to arouse any enthusiasm from the thirty-five voters present.

Harvey Dow Sent On.

Harvey Dow, who has been incarcerated in the city jail for several days, charged with a very heinous offense, was tried yesterday before Police Justice Williams. The commonwealth was represented by Col. J. W. Hartwell, and the prisoner by Capt. Phil. Lockett. Captain Lockett argued that there was no statute covering the offense with which his client is charged. Justice Williams sent the prisoner to the grand jury in two cases. Four more warrants have been applied for charging Dow with the same offense.

Greene-Memorial Services.

The revival services at Greene Memorial Church continue to grow in interest. The house was filled to overflowing last night. Rev. W. A. Ross preached an able and instructive sermon, which was well received. At the conclusion of the sermon there were several conversions and a number stood up for prayers. There will be services this morning at 10 o'clock at Trinity Church. Everybody is invited to attend. The services will continue to-night and will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Christian Church Revival.

Rev. Jno. M. Goodwin, of Nashville, Tenn., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and preached to a good audience at the Fourth Avenue Christian Church last night. The sermon was powerful and impressive, and resulted in one conversion. This was the beginning of a series of revival services at this church, which will continue until further notice. All are invited to attend. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock each evening.

Hastings Court.

In the case of Rev. W. R. Gallus vs. the Western Union Telegraph Company, the jury brought in a verdict of forty cents damage in favor of the plaintiff. This verdict was set aside by Judge Woods, as not being according to the law and evidence. The civil term of the court adjourned yesterday. The criminal term of the court will convene on Monday, November 4.

Approaching Vinton Marriage.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of E. W. Bowle, of Vinton, to Miss Ola Gish, the popular daughter of Geo. R. Gish, near Vinton. The marriage will take place at the Vinton Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, November 6, at high noon.

Cherry Trees in Full Bloom.

Capt. D. C. Booth, of this city, who owns a farm near Bonacks, has about twenty-five cherry trees in his place. A large number of these trees are now in full bloom, after bearing a full crop once this year. This phenomenon is probably due to the extremely dry and warm weather which has prevailed during the autumn months.

Dr. Broughton in Richmond.

Dr. L. G. Broughton, of Roanoke, Va., is in the city, and will preach at Venable Street Baptist Church every night this week. Many persons on Church Hill remember the great revival Dr. Broughton held at Leigh Street Baptist Church last spring and will be glad to have an opportunity to hear him again. As published exclusively in these columns some time ago, Dr. Broughton has accepted the pastorate of Lee Street Baptist Church, Baltimore, which is a high compliment for one so young. In connection with his pastoral duties he will do evangelical work as heretofore. —Richmond Star.

Football Notes.

The interest in the Y. M. C. A. football team is increasing daily. The athletic committee have arranged conditions upon which men may enter for practice with a view to getting on the team. A large number are practicing now under the direction of Capt. Phil. Mesage. Those desiring to join should apply to Manager Gilmer or Secretary Mescham to-night.

Public Speaking at Norwich.

Col. J. W. Hartwell and others will address the voters at Norwich in the Bridgewater building at 7:30 o'clock to-night, on the issues of the honest elections campaign. All voters are requested to turn out and hear the issues discussed.

The University Fund.

In accordance with the request of the originators of the movement to raise a fund in aid of the University of Virginia, THE TIMES will receive subscriptions thereto, and forward the amounts promptly to the rector of the University at Charlottesville.

Speaking at Cave Spring.

Col. J. Hampton Hoge will address the citizens of Cave Spring on the principles involved in the honest elections campaign on Friday night, November 1. Let the citizens turn out en masse and hear Mr. Hoge.

Services at First Baptist.

The pastor, Rev. E. B. Pollard, will conduct evangelistic services at the First Baptist Church to-night instead of the regular prayer meeting service. All are cordially invited to attend.

General Walker to Speak.

Don't forget that Gen. James A. Walker will speak at the Old Opera House on Thursday night, October 31. The General is a pleasing talker and will entertain. Turn out, everybody, and hear him.

A Lindeman Grand.

HUKKAB AT BONSACK.

Some Truths Concerning That Meeting—Captain Rogers' Speech.

According to an appointment previously made, Mayor S. E. Jones, accompanied by County Chairman M. M. Rogers, addressed a meeting of the voters of Bonsack Monday night at the schoolhouse at that place. Upon arriving in Bonsack the gentlemen from Roanoke found that services were about to be conducted in the Baptist Church there by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Hamilton, and a pleasant understanding was reached by them that they should first listen to the minister in the church, if he would afterward come to the schoolhouse and listen to the machine Democracy doctrine as laid down by Roanoke's worthy orators.

Mayor Jones was the first speaker on the programme, and made an interesting little talk to the voters of Bonsack, which, to use the expression of some who were there, "didn't carry much weight."

The interesting feature of the occasion was the rambling speech made by Capt. Mort. M. Rogers, county chairman of the Democratic party. The worthy captain had learned that there was a strong Prohibition element at Bonsack, which the machine would have to combat if they wished to carry the precinct for the combine ticket, so he started off by saying that McCartney was not the man he wanted on the Democratic ticket, but that he was favorable to the nomination of Hawkins. Men who heard him, and who would scorn to misrepresent a fact, considered his speech as a straight-out apology for Andrew McCartney being on the ticket, which was made in order to catch the Prohibition vote for at least a part of the ticket he advocated.

He stated that he was not a local politician, but favored Prohibition, but that he had done more than any other man toward giving the people of the county local option and that he was largely instrumental in the election of Mr. Moffitt to the county judgeship. The captain also said that he was serving his last term as county chairman, as he did not propose to be under the lash any longer. He would not accept the chairmanship again, as there was no pay in it.

THE LATE COLONEL OTT.

A Strong Tribute to His Worth as an Officer and a Man.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Iron Belt Building and Loan Association held October 14 the death of John Ott, the late secretary of the association, was announced, and a committee, consisting of C. A. McHugh, S. W. Jamison and J. C. Davenport, was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions in respect thereto. The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted:

"Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove from his sphere of earthly usefulness, Col. John Ott, the secretary of this association, it is deemed proper that those associated with him in the management of said association should place upon record the high appreciation which they had for the officer and the man.

"Col. Ott, while a mere stripling, began his business career in the Treasury Department at Washington. Native merit and application to his duties rapidly advanced him until at the breaking out of the civil war he occupied a chief clerkship in that department. His prospects in life were then bright, indeed, but he relinquished all without hesitation and hastened to Richmond to share the fortunes of his native land.

"In the dark and trying days of the civil war, whether in the administrative department of the Confederacy as assistant to Mr. Memminger and the gifted Trenholm, or whether in the field, he served with equal courage and fidelity.

"After the war he continued in business in Richmond until failing health compelled him to seek the more congenial climate of Roanoke. Shortly after his arrival here the Iron Belt Building and Loan Association was organized and he became its first secretary. This office he continuously and acceptably filled until the time of his death, discharging its onerous duties with the same ability, zeal and fidelity that ever characterized his business and official life.

"Duty was the hinge upon which his every action turned. Loyal in character; pure in life; faithful to every trust; loyal in his friendships; affable, courteous and considerate to all with whom he came into contact, his life illustrated the quality of his heart and proved him the true Christian gentleman.

"Be it resolved, that in the death of John Ott this commonwealth has lost a patriotic and devoted son, and this association an able, courageous and efficient officer.

"2. That in this hour of supreme trial we tender to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and condolence.

"3. That a page in our minute book be dedicated to his memory, and a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to his family."

Van Allen Admitted to Bail.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 29.—Sheriff Anthony, of Newport county, announced this morning that a deputy had served the writ sworn out against James J. Van Allen by Col. Samuel R. Colt for the alleged alienation of the affections of the wife of Colonel Colt and that bail in the sum of $200,000 had been furnished. It is stated that the bail bond is secured by a mortgage on Wakehurst, Van Allen's summer residence, which is easily worth double the amount. Van Allen left Newport early this morning presumably for Shelburne Falls, Vermont.

Russian View of the Situation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—The Novoye Vremya publishes a dispatch from Vladivostok saying that the British squadron of war ships in the waters of the far east should be concentrated at Fu Chang and adds: "Great Britain is zealously seeking a pretext for declaring war upon China, in order to counteract the successes of Russia and restore her shattered prestige in the Pacific."

NOT A SICK DAY.

For Over Thirty Years!

RESULT OF USING
AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. WETTERSTEN, Byron, Ill.
